

TERMS & CONDITIONS

The following pages contain important information on Costs and Terms of Payment, What is or is not included, Cancellation Policy & Fees, Compulsory Insurance, Health Considerations, Liability, Pricing & Currency Fluctuations, Travelling with Camera Gear, etc.

Payment and Cancellation Terms

1. This tour is costed in USD and that is thus the only constant price. All prices shown in other currencies are merely for your convenience and are subject to the fluctuation thereof. We do our best to update foreign currency prices regularly, but we advise that you do a calculation at the current exchange rate for an accurate price in your preferred currency.
2. The price of this tour is $9000.00US.
3. In order to secure your spot on this tour, a deposit of $1500.00 is required. This deposit can be paid via wire transfer or credit card (via Payfast) and it is non-refundable. Please note that your spot on the workshop is NOT confirmed until we have received the deposit payment. Credit card surcharges - we absorb the surcharges of paying the deposit by credit card, but only on the deposit. We ask that you make the final payment by wire transfer, but you can pay it by credit card (via Payfast) should you prefer to do so. If doing so, we have to raise a 5% surcharge on the amount to cover the costs of accepting your payment via an expensive channel.
4. Full Payment must be made 90 days prior to the start of the tour. We will send out a final invoice for the full amount to remind you of the due date in safe time. If we have not received your full payment 60 days prior to the start of the tour and you did not inform us of a valid reason for a late payment, GoGravel reserves the right to consider your booking as cancelled.
5. All wire transfer payments must be indicated in the full USD amount from your side when making the forex payment, with all bank charges for the payee. We can only credit the final amount received in our account to your invoice.
6. Please note that there are a limited number of single occupation spaces available, for which an additional non-refundable single supplement of $950.00 is required when booking. If sharing, we do our absolute best to pair people of the same gender, nationality and age and it is subject to discussion with both parties.
7. When booking within 90 days of the start of the tour, immediate full payment will be required to secure your spot.
8. If you have a valid reason for a late payment like being out of communication or waiting for investments to be cashed out, please inform us.

Travel Insurance & Flight Information

1. We require your full international flight itinerary, including e-ticket, flight numbers, dates, time AND your booking code. This is so that we can keep track of your arrival if any of the flights are delayed.
2. You will have to take out comprehensive travel insurance with medevac cover and provide us with proof thereof. We require the name of the insurer, the policy number and the emergency contact number. This is so that we are prepared when something goes wrong.
3. Cancellation insurance - Obviously no one would book a trip like this and then just cancel for a random reason, but life throws us curveballs when we least expect it. You would be surprised how many cancellations we get every year due to medical, business or family crises. We strongly advise that you get cancellation insurance to refund your money if bad luck crosses your path.
4. We require a copy of your full flight itinerary or e-ticket as well as your passport number. If something like an airline strike occurs on the day that you're flying out, we have travel agents who can assist with changing your tickets or booking new ones. When these situations occur, the flights on either side of the strike days fill up rapidly and we need to act quickly to make sure that your journey continues as smoothly as possible. This situation has happened to us on a Patagonia tour while we had no telecoms, but our agents were able to handle it thanks to good preparation. The chances of this happening are small, but we like to be prepared for it if it ever does.

Cancellation Terms

1. If you need to cancel your participation after the deposit has been paid we will be unable to refund your deposit due to the fact that all the necessary bookings with all the third parties will have been made and with their required deposits paid. Most of the deposits we pay are not refundable and whatever we still hold is used to defray the administrative work of changing all the bookings made on your behalf. The only exceptions to this will be if we are able find a substitute to attend the workshop in your place, but this will incur a 10% administration fee. If you are unable to travel due to COVID restrictions we will refund 75% of your deposit.
2. If you need to cancel your participation once you have made full payment, a 75% refund (excluding deposit) will be given up to 30 days prior to the start of the tour.
3. GoGravel reserves the right to cancel the tour if it is necessary or advisable due to events such as outbreak of conflict, government intervention, expiry of concessions or access right or insufficient booking numbers being available. The operation of the tour is at the sole discretion of GoGravel, having in mind the welfare of all participants and the safe and prudent operation of the itinerary and program. In such a case all monies paid by participants for the tour, in holding by GoGravel, will be refunded to the participants. This excludes deposits or full payments made to 3rd parties involved in the tour like lodges, charter companies or travel agents.
