

PAYMENT AND CANCELLATION TERMS

Payment

This tour is costed in USD and that is thus the only constant price. All prices shown in other currencies are merely for your convenience and are subject to the fluctuation thereof. We do our best to update foreign currency prices regularly, but we advise that you do a calculation at the current exchange rate for an accurate price in your preferred currency.

1. In order to secure your spot on this tour, a deposit of $2 500.00 is required. This deposit can be paid via wire transfer, Wise or credit card and it is non-refundable. Please note that your spot on the workshop is NOT confirmed until we have received the deposit payment.
2. We accept payment by conventional wire transfer or via Wise, one of the world's leading global payment services, which offers several convenient ways to pay a person or business in another country.
3. Full Payment must be made 60 days prior to the start of the tour. We will send out a final invoice for the full amount to remind you of the due date in safe time. If we have not received your full payment 60 days prior to the start of the tour and you did not inform us of a valid reason for a late payment, we reserve the right to consider your booking as cancelled.
4. All payments must be indicated in the full USD amount from your side when making a wire payment. We can only credit the final amount received in our account to your invoice.
5. Please note that there are a limited number of single occupation spaces available, for which an additional non-refundable single supplement of $2 500.00 is required when booking. If sharing, we do our absolute best to pair people of the same gender, nationality and age and it is subject to discussion with both parties.
6. You will need to complete and sign a standard liability disclaimer in order to participate in this tour.
7. When booking within 60 days of the start of the tour, immediate full payment will be required to secure your spot.
8. If you have a valid reason for a late payment like being out of communication or waiting for investments to be cashed out, please inform us.

Travel Insurance & Flight Itinerary

1. You will have to take out comprehensive travel insurance and provide us with proof thereof. We require the name of the insurer, the policy nr and the emergency contact nr. This is so that we are prepared when something goes wrong.
2. Cancellation insurance - Obviously no one would book a trip like this and then just cancel for a random reason, but life throws us curve-balls when we least expect it. You would be surprised how many cancellations we get every year due to medical, business or family crises. We strongly advise that you get cancellation insurance to refund your money if bad luck crosses your path.
3. We require a copy of your full flight itinerary or e-ticket as well as your passport number. If something like an airline strike occurs on the day that you're flying out, we have travel agents who can assist with changing your tickets or booking new ones. When these situations occur, the flights on either side of the strike days fill up rapidly and we need to act quickly to make sure that your journey continues as smoothly as possible. This situation has happened to us on a Patagonia tour while we had no telecomms, but our agents were able to handle it thanks to good preparation. The chances of this happening are small, but we like to be prepared for it if it ever does.

Refunds & Cancellations

What happens to my deposit if I need to cancel my participation on a tour?

Non-refundable deposit policies are a key part of the tourism industry as they prevent tourists from cancelling at the last minute and leaving the supply chain with unrecoverable costs. We need to communicate this clearly from the outset in order to protect ourselves and the remaining participants by ensuring the trips are run efficiently and not cancelled due to too many participants dropping out.

That being said, we will always do our best to return any remaining value to clients who have to cancel for unforeseen reasons. There are however many costs involved in accepting a booking and also cancelling and refunding it, which means that we cannot return 100% of your deposit.

Costs of Accepting, cancelling and refunding a Booking

1. Processing an international deposit payment (paperwork, forex fees & Commission)
2. Administration of answering all questions to confirm booking
3. Administration of confirming booking with supply chain
4. Administration of cancelling booking with supply chain
5. Processing an international refund payment (paperwork, forex fees & commission)
6. Administration of advertising and rebooking the new place and accepting their payment (repeat of steps 1,2,3)

Booking a tour participant, then cancelling and refunding them and subsequently replacing them with someone else consumes 7-12 work hours. International payments account for at least 10% of the deposit value in fees and brokerage. We hope this helps you understand why there is a substantial cancellation penalty.

Cancellation Policy

Firstly, In order for any refund to happen, we have to find someone to take your spot on the tour. If we cannot find a substitute, then we cannot offer any refund.

1. Cancellation more than 6 months/180 days before departure - 70% refund of deposit or 100% credit for future tours.
2. Cancellation 3-6 months/90-179 days before departure - 50% refund of deposit or 100% credit
3. Cancellation within 90 days of departure - zero refund

If you paid by card, there will be an additional 5% penalty.

Within 90 days of departure, we are already deep into the tour preparations with the participants. Cancellations at this point are extremely hard to fill as prospective participants have little time to organize their lives and flights etc. in order to attend the workshop which results not only in our suppliers being unable to refund us any of our own costs, but also the loss of income from the unfilled spot.

Refund Timeline

Processing a refund takes time due to all the admin involved and the nature of our work - we spend several months per year out of office guiding tours and we are often away from our desks for weeks, followed by very busy catch-up periods afterward.

1. Step one to processing a cancellation is finding a substitute. This normally takes at least 1-2 weeks.
2. It then takes another 1-2 weeks until we have received the substitute's deposit, which serves as confirmation that we've successfully booked a substitute to offset your cancellation.
3. We will then reach out to you to confirm that we can refund you, requesting your bank details. Your refund will be processed within 7 days of receiving your bank details, IF, the person responsible is not travelling.

The average timeline for a refund is 4-6 weeks, sometimes longer, but we always try to get it done ASAP.

Comprehensive Travel & Cancellation Insurance

We strongly recommend that you purchase good travel & cancellation insurance, which will give you a full refund if you cancel for a valid reason. Bad luck always crosses one's path at the worst possible time and we have zero control over it. Protect yourself against coincidence and bad luck.
